GOLDSMITH'S CLASSIC COMING

The people of Monett will be interested in knowing that the management of the Gem theatre has booked Pathe's great 7-reel feature "The Vicar of Wakefield" for the 6th of February. It is a perfect picturization of Oliver Goldsmith's great novel with the noted actor Frederick Warde as the Vicar. It is a picture that appeals to the most exacting people and as it is a subject that is used in our schools, the school children as well as the grown-ups will want to see it. There are few people who have not read Goldsmith's Vicar of Wakefield. There will be a special matinee for the school children at 3:45 p. m. The night show will begin at 7 o'clock with special music at night.

RURAL CARRIER EXAMINATION

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the County of Barry, Missouri, to be held at 10 o'clock a. m., at Monett, on February 9, 1918, to fill the position of rural carrier at Purdy, Mo., and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post offices in the above-mentioned county. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. This form and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

RAILROAD COMPANY SETTLES DAMAGE CASES

Attorney D. H. Kemp Succeeds in Securing Satisfactory Settlement of Damage Claims for Three Clients

Oscar Holder, O. H. Burkes, of Butterfield, Mo., employees of the Frisco Railway company, and H. P. Bentz of Pierce City, Mo., through their attorney D. H. Kemp compromised and settled their law suits this week with the claim agents satisfactory to each.

Oscar Holder was employed by the Frisco as brakeman and in following the instructions of the conductor and engineer of his train at Washburn was 13th of September, 1917, was injured department denied any liability and suit was filed in the Barry County Circuit court, where on application of the railway company the case was changed to Joplin and was to have been tried Wednesday. Holder received $1850.00 and the company paid all costs.

O. H. Burkes was employed in the freight depot as digger and on the 13th of September, 1917, was injured while assisting other employees in loading a rock crusher, failing to get any offer of settlement, he filed suit in Lawrence Circuit court. The claim department of the Frisco were convinced, after taking several depositions that there was liability and a satisfactory adjustment was made and the case was dismissed at the cost of the railroad company.

H. P. Bentz of Pierce City fell into an unguarded hole in the telephone company had made in the streets of Pierce City and received injury to his back on the 15th of October, 1917, the claim department denied any liability and refused to consider Mr. Bentz's demand; suit was filed in the Lawrence Circuit court. The day before the case was to be tried, the attorney for the Southwestern Bell Telephone company agreed with Mr. Kemp on liability and settled satisfactorily to his client, and the case was dismissed at the cost of the telephone company.
